A Prayer for Pride

Creative God, who has breathed life into the universe
Here we are.

Marvelous God, who has loved us into being
Here we are.

Generous God, who has shown us what love is
Here we are.

Here we are in all our blessed being
With our families, given and chosen
With our loves, sacred and fierce.

For the communities that have held us, we give thanks.
We honor our elders and bless our young ones
And revel in the circle of our being and belonging one to another.

We remember that you have created us for and called us to love:
To love you
To love each other
To love ourselves.

Here we are.
Here we are.
Here we are.

rss June 2019